Dr. Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, Professor of Sociology
Duke University

Thursday, April 6, 2017
6:00PM-7:30PM
Reception 5:00PM-6:00PM
Keynote 6:00PM-7:30PM
Marston Theater in ISTB 4 at the Tempe campus

Dr. Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, PhD, is Professor and Chair of the Sociology Department at Duke University, and President-Elect of the American Sociological Association. He is widely acclaimed for his outstanding scholarship on racial theory, including the now classic book, Racism without Racist (now in its fourth edition) about colorblind racism. His work has been featured in media, including journals, blogs, and films. His current research focuses on the changing nature of racial stratification in the United States, racial grammar, and historically white colleges and universities. Bonilla-Silva received his BA from the University of Puerto Rico–Rio Piedras campus, and his MA and PhD from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. His published works include Racism without Racist, 4th ed. (2013), White Out: The Continuing Significance of Racism (with A. W. Doane, 2013), and White Supremacy and Racism in the Post-Civil Rights Era (2001), among others.

This event is free and is open to ASU faculty, staff and students, and members of the community.
